By submitting this application, the undersigned warrants that the application and each individual listed as principal, partner, owner, guarantor or obligor consent, authorize and warrant as follows: (a) Don Brown Bus Sales (DBBS) or its assignees may obtain commercial and consumer credit reports, investigate references and statements, and make credit inquiries about the applicant and all such individuals, and anybody contacted in connection therewith may release any credit and financial information; (b) DBBS and its affiliates may share with one another financial, credit and other information about the applicant and such individuals and use shared information to market to the applicant and the individuals; (c) the information on or accompanying the Application is true and complete, and the undersigned will notify DBBS of any material change in any information; (d) the Application is submitted in connection with financing solely for business and commercial purposes and NOT for personal, family or household purposes; (e) the applicant, if an individual, is a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States; and (f) this Application will apply to any future request for additional financing and all notices, disclosures, and consents and warranties shall be deemed repeated for future request, unless the applicant submits a new written application. DBBS does not make any offers to commitments to extend credit except in final signed documents and, in limited circumstances, in pursuant to the terms and conditions of written commitment letters. Term sheets, proposal letters, approval letters and the like are not commitment letters.

EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT. If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial. To obtain the statement, please contact us at Don Brown Bus Sales, 703 County Highway 107, Johnstown, NY 12095, (518) 762-7380 within 60 days from the date you are notified of our decision. We will send you a written statement of reasons for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request for the statement. NOTICE: The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.

Important Information about Procedures for Opening a New Account. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal Law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Read Carefully Before Submitting this Application. We recommend that you print the Application, sign it below, and fax or mail it to us at the address set forth above. If you sent this Application by unencrypted and non-secure email, the content, including non-public information, may be at risk.
